Clybourne Park is the latest transfer from the Royal Court, after successes with both ENRON and Jerusalem in 2010. In 1959 Russ and Bev are selling their desirable two-bed at a knock-down price. This enables the first Black family to move into the neighbourhood, creating ripples of discontent amongst the cosy white urbanites of Clybourne Park.

A play by Bruce Norris

And Clybourne Park, by Bruce Norris' own design, is a satire - an examination of the ways that we talk about race and class and territoriality without actually using any of those words, the coded language that makes our points, but still leaves us enough coverage to claim that perhaps we'd been misunderstood.
