Misconception: Original sin permanently alienates us from God. Fact: God does not blame us for what Adam and Eve did. He understands that we are imperfect, and he does not expect more of us than he knows is reasonable. (Psalm 103:14) Even though we suffer from inherited sin, we have the opportunity and privilege of having a close friendship with God.—

What Was the Original Sin? (What Is the Original Sin?)

Original sin is known in two senses: the Fall of Adam as the "original" sin and the hereditary fallen nature and moral corruption that is passed down from Adam to his descendants. It is called "original" in that Adam, the first man, is the one who sinned and thus caused sin to enter the world.

What is original sin? | CARM.org

The term Original Sin (or first sin) is used among all Christian churches to define the doctrine surrounding Romans 5:12-21 and 1 Corinthians 15:22, in which Adam is identified as the man through whom death came into the world. How this is interpreted is believed by many Orthodox to be a fundamental difference between the Eastern Orthodox Church and the Western Churches.

This seems to assume original sin — wickedness is a property of the human heart. Ecclesiastes 9:3 declares a similar truth: ". . . the hearts of the sons of men are full of evil, and insanity is in their hearts through their lives.". Again, the human heart is sinful, and therefore all humans are sinful.

What Is the Biblical Evidence for Original Sin? | Desiring God

Original Sin is not the hereditary transmission of a transgression, but the hereditary transmission of a deprivation. Specifically, Original Sin is the absence of something (i.e., the likeness of God) that we should have inherited and passed down from generation-to-generation but didn't.

Original Sin - Catholic365

Original sin may be taken to mean: (1) the sin that Adam committed; (2) a consequence of this first sin, the hereditary stain with which we are born on account of our origin or descent from Adam. From the earliest times the latter sense of the word was more common, as may be seen by St. Augustine's statement: "the deliberate sin of the first ...
